INFORMATION FOR STUDY MATERIAL AND EXAMINATION PREPARATION

Title 20 of Arizona Revised Statutes and Title 20, Chapter 6 of Arizona Administrative Code are where most of Arizona's insurance-related laws and rules can be found. Current versions of these materials are available over the Internet.

- Arizona Revised Statutes are available from the Arizona Legislative Information System (ALIS) at www.azleg.state.az.us;
- Arizona Administrative Code are available from the Arizona Secretary of State at www.azsos.gov.

The Department's PRODUCERS Internet web page, available from www.id.state.az.us, has links to both information sources.

Arizona Revised Statutes and Arizona Administrative Code are available for reference (but not removal) at

- Arizona State University Library in Tempe
- Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff
- University of Arizona in Tucson
- Various insurance company offices throughout the state

Additionally, you may be able to access insurance laws and regulations from your prospective employer or from your local library.

Many publishing companies print study manuals. The Department of Insurance does not recommend any particular publisher's study material nor does it regulate published materials. We are aware that the following firms have study materials available for purchase.
